THE KIMMEL CENTER CULTURAL CAMPUS PRESENTS
ILANA GLAZER'S NEW COMEDY TOUR
*HORNY 4 THA POLLS

*Tour Launches on March 4 In DC and Visits Nine Cities Across The U.S.
Including Philadelphia On March 21, 2020*

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE (Philadelphia, PA, February 12, 2020) – Emmy® nominated actor and the co-creator and star of the critically-acclaimed show Broad City, Ilana Glazer announced she is launching her new comedy tour Horny 4 Tha Polls beginning March 4 in Washington, DC. The tour will visit nine total cities through March 30, including Philadelphia, Seattle, Portland, and Oakland, among others. She will visit Philadelphia on March 21, 2020 at 8:00 p.m. at the Kimmel Center Cultural Campus' Merriam Theater.

"Ilana Glazer has become the voice of a generation through her outspoken, yet relatable comedy offerings and social activism," said Anne Ewers, President and CEO of the Kimmel Center for the Performing Arts. "On our Cultural Campus, we engage our neighbors as a hub for conversation, presenting programming that is not only entertaining, but spurs discussion surrounding important community issues. Glazer's timely stand-up performance enables guests to vocalize questions while uniting the audience together with thought-provoking content."

Ilana can currently be seen in her debut comedy special The Planet is Burning which premiered on Amazon Prime the beginning of this year. She taped the special during her last sold-out comedy tour. The New York Times says of The Planet is Burning, "Glazer is taking a solo turn with this stand-up special, which includes sharp observations on anti-Semitism, sexism and homophobia."

Ilana recently co-founded Generator Collective, a series she launched with the mission to gather people to talk and learn more about politics and government 'without feeling dumb.' As part of the HORNY 4 THA POLLS comedy tour, Ilana plans to host a number of 'Genny Social' dance parties in each city to get the public involved. The Kimmel Center Cultural Campus

Located in the heart of Center City, Philadelphia, our mission is to engage the region's diverse communities with art through performance and education. Our Cultural Campus serves more than 1 million guests per year and includes the Kimmel Center for the Performing Arts, the Academy of Music, and the Merriam Theater- representing more than 160 years of rich history for the performing arts along Philadelphia's Avenue of the Arts. We are home to eight esteemed Resident Companies: The Philadelphia Orchestra, Opera Philadelphia, Pennsylvania Ballet, The Philly POPS, PHILADANCO, The Chamber Orchestra of Philadelphia, The Philadelphia Chamber Music Society, and Curtis Institute of Music. With nearly 9,000 seats per night, we are the region's most impactful performing arts center, and the second largest in the country. Our Cultural Campus serves as a preeminent and inclusive place to enjoy exceptional experiences that reflect the spirit of our region by cultivating a creative and socially-responsible environment where our community shares experiences that are delivered with pride, integrity, and respect. As a 501 c 3 nonprofit organization, we collaborate on, present, and produce a broad range of relevant and meaningful events, we serve as an active gathering space for social and community events, we educate the region's young people through access to quality arts experiences, and we provide support to artists in the creation of new work. TD Bank, America's Most Convenient Bank, is our proud sponsor of the Kimmel Center's 2019-2020 Season. American Airlines is the official airline of Broadway Philadelphia.
