KIMMEL CENTER CULTURAL CAMPUS HOSTS
CRITICALLY-ACCLAIMED PUPPETRY & FILM COMPANY
MANUAL CINEMA
FOR PREMIERE ORGAN PERFORMANCE
MAY 18, 2019

“An unclassifiable story of spectral beauty.” – The New York Times

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE (Philadelphia, PA, April 4, 2019) – The Kimmel Center Cultural Campus is excited to welcome back Manual Cinema with ADA/AVA and a brand new adaptation for organ premiering in the Kimmel Center’s Verizon Hall on Saturday, May 18, 2019 at 8:00 p.m. This incredible performance collective combines handmade shadow puppetry, cinematic techniques, and innovative sound and music to create immersive stories for stage and screen. The collective will be joined by special guest Aaron David Miller on the Fred J. Cooper Memorial Organ. The Kimmel Center first partnered with Manual Cinema and The Barnes Foundation on a sold-out engagement during PIFA 2016.

“Manual Cinema masterfully combines various artistic elements to craft performances that are as imaginative as they are impactful,” said Anne Ewers, President and CEO of the Kimmel Center for the Performing Arts. “ADA/AVA utilizes an imaginative story of the fantastic and supernatural to explore deeper universal themes, accompanied by the ‘King of Instruments’ in Verizon Hall. This is Manual Cinema’s premiere performance with organ – such an honor for us and a wonderful addition to our Kimmel Center Organ Series!”

Touted by The New Yorker as “theatrical magic” and by The Guardian as “an exquisitely precise piece of visual storytelling”, ADA/AVA explores mourning and melancholy, self and other. Set in a landscape of the New England gothic, the show follows septuagenarian Ada. Bereaved of her twin sister Ava, Ada solitarily marks time in the patterns of a life built for two. However, a traveling carnival and a trip to a mirror maze plunges her into a journey across the thresholds of life and death.

Manual Cinema is a performance collective, design studio, and film/video production company founded in 2010 by Drew Dir, Sarah Fornace, Ben Kauffman, Julia Miller, and Kyle Vegter. Using vintage overhead projectors, multiple screens, puppets, actors, live feed cameras, multi-channel sound design, and a live music ensemble, Manual Cinema transforms the experience of attending the cinema and imbues it with liveness, ingenuity, and theatricality.

Their unique methods have resulted in their work being showcased in top venues worldwide including The Metropolitan Museum of Art and The Kennedy Center. In addition to winning an Emmy® Award, they have been Peabody finalists and received honors from The New York Times, Time Out, and the National Puppet Festival, among others.

Other featured upcoming performances at the Kimmel Center Cultural Campus include: Brit Floyd: Another Brick in the Wall 2019 (May 7, 2019, Merriam Theater), Polly Mope (May 9-11, 2019, SEI Innovation Studio), and The Illusionists – Live From Broadway (May 10-11, 2019, Merriam Theater).
